I Remember What You Did

A monologue by Dennis Bush

Selected from his collection,

"Life and Death, Laughter and Love"

Cast: 1 female

Length: 1 page of dialogue (206 words)

Performance time: About 1 ½ minutes

The Story

April is confronting a man she hoped never to see again. She feels threatened that he's somehow gotten into the house again, angry that he used to hit her mother, and furious that he had come after her as well. She realizes no one is to blame but him. She could almost kill him. (drama)
